

Going to have a Garden?

You Want to be Sure and Have the Best Seeds

You cannot make a successful garden unless you sow seed that will germinate and the best quality of stock.

You know there's a lot of garden seed on the market that has been in packages for several years, sent back and forth over the country, some of them will grow and some won't.

You owe it to yourself to get our seed. We give you good seed for your money. You get fresh seed—seed that will produce a better and more valuable garden.

We invite you to come in and see our seeds. We also have a fine lot of Field Seeds, Clover and Timothy.

Our Stock of Garden Tools is Now at its Best.

Democratic Mass Meeting

A Mass Meeting of Democrats was held at the Court House in the City of Ste. Genevieve, Mo., on Saturday, March 20th, 1920. Meeting was called to order by E. Godair, Chairman County Democratic Central Committee, for the purpose of selecting delegates from Ste. Genevieve County to the Democratic State Convention at Joplin, Mo.

E. Godair was selected as Chairman and L. Janis as Secretary of the meeting.

Chairman Godair appointed Dr. F. E. Hinch, James F. Berry and Wm. P. Huck as a committee on resolutions, and Felix J. Rigdon, Harry N. Gisi and Charles Blackledge as a committee on the selection of delegates to the Democratic State Convention which will be held at Joplin, Mo., on Thursday, April 22, 1920.

Delegate Committee reported and recommended that the following parties be selected as delegates and alternates from Ste. Genevieve County to the Democratic State Convention to be held at Joplin, Mo., on Thursday, April 22, 1920: Dr. F. E. Hinch, Thomas B. Straughan and C. J. Stanton, Delegates. Joseph Gegg, Frank Pratte and Lawrence P. Carron, Alternates. Miss Ethel Godair and Mrs. Charles Coffman, Delegates. Mrs. E. D. Vogt and Mrs. John Ball, Alternates.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried by the meeting the delegates and alternates recommended by the committee were elected as delegates and alternates from Ste. Genevieve County to the Democratic State Convention to be held at Joplin, Mo., on Thursday, April 22, 1920.

Committee on resolutions reported and presented to the meeting the following resolution:

Resolved, that we expressly and unreservedly approve and endorse the efforts both in peace and in war of our great President, Woodrow Wilson, and we acknowledge our gratitude for his leadership and administration in the troublous times through which we have passed.

We deeply deplore the opposition to the ratification of the peace treaty, which we believe is not expressive of the sentiments of the Democracy of Missouri, or the Nation.

We commend to the people of this County and State the wise, prudent and business like administration of Governor Gardner.

We pridefully approve the courageous and honest representation given us in the General Assembly of the State by our Representative, Hon. Leo D. Karl; and we condemn the misrepresentations of their respective constituencies, of our Senator Belken in the State Assembly and of Marion E. Rhodes in the Congress of the United States in the matter of Prohibition.

Being unqualified opposed to Prohibition as being subversive of the rights of the American Citizen, we are as unqualifiedly opposed to Prohibitionists of whatever degree in public office.

Appreciating the unselfish devotion to the Democratic Party in State and Nation, of the Hon. Edward F. Goltra, we hereby instruct the Delegates of this County to the State Convention to be held at Joplin, Missouri, on April 22nd, 1920, to vote and work for the said Edward F. Goltra for National Committee-man.

Last but not least, the Democratic Party of Ste. Genevieve County is grateful to our soldiers, sailors and marines for their faithful and splendid service to our country in the late great war.

It was moved, seconded and carried that the Resolutions as presented by the Committee be adopted.

Died

Julius Hogenmiller, one of Ste. Genevieve County's highly esteemed citizens, died at his home at Weingarten, at 8 o'clock Sunday night March 21, 1920, aged 76 years. His death was not unexpectedly, as he had been ill for some time, but was only confined to his bed for a few weeks. Those left to mourn his death are his wife, Mrs. Mary M. Hogenmiller, nee Fallert, a daughter Anna, Mrs. Nicholas Schwent, 7 grand children and one brother Otto Hogenmiller of Prairie du Rocher, Ill. The funeral took place from the Catholic Church at Weingarten Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and after a Requiem Mass the body was laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery.

Otto Hogenmiller of Prairie du Rocher and Mrs. Thomas Autsen and Peter Fallert of St. Louis attended the funeral.

John LeClere, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin LeClere, died at his home near Minnith, Mo., Sunday March 21, 1920, after a brief illness of pneumonia, aged about 38 years. Besides his parents he is survived by his wife Mrs. Elizabeth LeClere, nee Roth and several children. The burial took place at Minnith Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. August Nanny and sons Eugene and LeClere attended the funeral.

George Williams of Chestnut Ridge, died at the Bonne Terre Hospital, Thursday afternoon March 18, 1920, of blood poisoning, aged about 55 years. He leaves a wife and several children.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our relatives and friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our late sad bereavement in the loss of my dear husband and our father, Julius Hogenmiller.

THE FAMILY.

Burglars took silk shirts and other clothing valued at $5,000 from the J. L. Goff Mercantile Co., store at Desloge, last Sunday night. The stolen property had been recently bought and was still in the original packages. The burglary was the second in the Goff Store at Desloge since it was opened two months ago. Shoes worth more than $500 were stolen from the store January 28th.

Married

Miss Gladys Abernathy of St. Louis and James C. Bennett of Jefferson Barracks were quietly married in St. Louis, Wednesday March 17, 1920. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Abernathy, and has many friends in Ste. Genevieve, who join with us in wishing them a happy married life.

Last Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the Forty Hours Devotion was held at the Church of Ste. Genevieve. The exercises were very solemn and attended by a large number of the faithful. The weather was also very favorable. The sermons were preached by Rev. Father C. Scott, C. R. R. S. of the Rock Church, St. Louis, an eloquent speaker. The following Priests assisted the local clergy, Rev. Fathers P. Scott, C. S. R. and P. Constantine of St. Louis, J. Holtschneider of Festus, J. Moser of Bonne Terre, J. Fitzkam of Benton, H. Hassel of Bloomsdale, W. Kotte of Weingarten, F. X. Weing of Zell, J. Huber of Perryville, W. Roach of Seno, L. Broeckelmann of River aux Vases, and B. Krampfer of Ozora.
